1. Katherine Quick

My name is Katherine Quick and I am running for the open State Representative position on the PERS Board. I bring experience, skills and the vision needed to strengthen and solidify our pensions for our future, and I am seeking your support so I can work for us and our future. The pension system has faced many different challenges, and it will take diligent and smart advocacy to ensure that the pensions we have been promised as public employees are there when we retire. I am asking for your vote because I believe I am the kind of advocate needed for our pension system. I will work tirelessly on the PERS Board to make sure we meet the current and future challenges in ways that work for you. I have been involved as a local and state representative of the Probation Association of New Jersey for over a decade. I am currently the statewide Treasurer for PANJ and understand the complexities that are associated with making sound financial investments and prudent financial decisions. I will always be dedicated to improving the PERS investments to secure continued growth and fiscal stability for all of us. Thank you for your support. Solidarity!

2. Carey H. Brown

For the past six years, I have faithfully served as your representative to the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). State worker retirement security has always been and will continue to be my No. 1 priority. As a caseworker in Social Services or an investigator with the Division of Taxation, where I was a shop steward for CWA Local 1080 and local 1037 respectfully, or in my current position of lecturer at Kean University and proud member of KFT/AFT 2187, I have been a vocal advocate of public employees.

I have developed a close working relationship with all the major public employee unions, including AFSCME, AFT, CWA, IFPTE, and others. The State AFL-CIO and I have worked together for over 10 years on several pension projects and I am proud to be a union member.

Over the years, I have also forged alliances with elected state officials which has paid big dividends. Every action I take or decision I make as a PERS trustee is to make your retirement more secure.
